SUMMARY SHEET

Acknowledgement of receipt of the application — European Court of Human Rights · 20 March 2001

Overview: letter from the Registry of the European Court of Human Rights (Third Section, Strasbourg) acknowledging receipt of the application lodged by Bernard Collorafi against France.

Key points

The Registry states that the application arrived on 17 January 2001 and was registered on 20 March 2001 under file number 67232/01, in the case of Collorafi v. France. Unless the Court decides otherwise, the application is deemed to have been lodged on 10 December 2000. The letter specifies that a judge appointed as rapporteur will carry out a preliminary examination of admissibility and report to the Court, that the procedure is in principle written and that the applicant need not appear in person unless invited to do so. He is asked to notify any change of address and to inform the Court of any subsequent developments in his case.

Significance

This document attests to the referral to the European court after domestic remedies had been exhausted and places the dispute at its highest stage of judicial challenge.
