SUMMARY SHEET

Letter — Bernard Collorafi to McDonald's France · 9 October 1997

Overview: letter from Bernard Collorafi (GIE SODEVA, Antibes) addressed to Isabelle Kuster, of McDonald's France in Aix-en-Provence, in reply to a letter of 22 September 1997.

Key points

Collorafi responds to the reminders concerning unpaid rent invoices. He explains that substantial falls in turnover have led to a cash shortfall and states that he discussed this on four occasions with Jean-Christophe Gaumier, financial adviser, during visits held on 5 March, 7 May, 15 May and 28 August 1997. He specifies that his accounts department is in regular contact with head office accounting regarding the reminders and says he is available for any audits desired. The letter is accompanied by accounting documents: accounting position as at 31 August 1997 of the companies SEBOL and B et O, reconciled income statements, loan amortisation schedules, bank reconciliations and forecast income statements for 1998.

Significance

This correspondence documents the cash-flow difficulties invoked by the franchisee, a few months before McDonald's terminated the agreements; it sheds light on the origin of the unpaid fees.
